

DHS CONFERENCE BURSARY APPLICATION

The Design History Society has a bursary fund to assist DHS Student members whose papers have been accepted for presentation at our annual conference. The Society endeavours to provide bursaries for up to 15 DHS student members presenting at our Conference. Each bursary includes the concessionary rate conference fee, attendance at the gala dinner.

To qualify for one of our Bursaries applicants must:

1. Be a student member of the Design History Society (evidence must be submitted with your application)
2. Provide evidence of their studentship
3. Agree to provide a report for submission in the DHS newsletter

Any applications submitted without sufficient supporting evidence will be rejected. The DHS Executive reserves all rights to accept or reject any bursary applications.
